

DECISION

ON AMENDMENTS TO THE BALTIC ASSEMBLY REGULATIONS FOR PUBLISHING THE WORKS OF THE BALTIC ASSEMBLY PRIZE WINNERS

The Baltic Assembly decides to amend the Baltic Assembly Regulations for Publishing the Works of the Baltic Assembly Prize Winners in the following manner:

1. Paragraph 1 shall be amended by striking out “close” and set forth to read as follows:

1. The Baltic Assembly shall announce a tender for Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian book publishers on publishing the works of the Baltic Assembly prize winners for literature.

2. Subparagraph 1 of paragraph 4 shall be amended by striking out “awarded”, and shall be set forth to read as follows:

1) an application for participation in the tender. The application must provide justification for the choice of the translator;

3. Paragraph 4 shall be amended by adding following paragraphs 5, 6 and 7:

5) presentation of planned marketing activities;

6) a possible sample of the cover of the book which is planned to be published;

7) copies of the books which were published by the publisher over the recent years.

4. Paragraph 7 shall be amended by adding a new sentence and shall be set forth to read as follows:

7. The applications for participation in the tender may be submitted within two months from the day of announcement of the tender. Upon the expiry of this term, the commission shall examine applications and make a decision, within one month. The commission shall within two weeks inform in writing each participant about the results of the tender. The materials submitted by the publishers who have not won the tender, shall be returned to the said publishers.

5. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph 9 shall be amended by striking out “two years” and substituting “one year”, and shall be set forth to read as follows:

2) the whole allotted sum shall be made available to the publisher after presenting an advance copy of the book. Pursuant to the Statutes of the Baltic Assembly on the Prizes for Literature, the Arts and Science, the book must be published within a period of one year.
