The Baltic Assembly, meeting in Jūrmala (Ķemeri) from May 13-15, 1994, suggests that the Parliaments and Governments of the Baltic States resolve the issue of working out uniform legislative norms and operative procedures for crossing the borders between the abovementioned States and between Lithuania and Poland.