

BALTIC ASSEMBLY

RESOLUTION

On Compensation to Politically-Repressed Land Owners

The Baltic Assembly recommends that the Baltic Council of Ministers agree on common principles by which compensation for land may be received by those pre-World War II citizens of the Baltic States who were politically repressed during the Soviet regime and who, upon their release, were forbidden to return to their former countries of residence and therefore settled in another Baltic State and have become or have applied to become citizens of that State.

Vilnius, November 13, 1994