

DECLARATION

relating to the Statements concerning Guarantees of Security for the Baltic States and Measures for Strengthening Trust in the Relations between them and Russia made by Russian President Yeltsin on 24th October 1997”

The Baltic Assembly, welcoming Russia’s initiative to develop co-operation with the three Baltic States, agrees with the statement of the Ministries of Foreign Affairs of Estonia, Latvia and Latvia concerning Russia’s unilateral guarantees of security, declares that the three Baltic States see the guarantee of their security within the framework of the all-European security system and accession to the EU and NATO.