

REGULATIONS

On Symbols of the Baltic Assembly

1. The visual symbol of the Baltic Assembly shall be a blue, stylized, three-contour trefoil on a white background and the words "The Baltic Assembly" inscribed in three official languages (the graphic representation of the symbol and the colour designations are attached).
2. The symbols of the Baltic Assembly shall be used on Baltic Assembly documents, letterheads and publications, and in public places during events of the Baltic Assembly.
3. For the purposes of popularizing the Baltic Assembly, its symbols can be included in an artistic design on quality goods, souvenirs and packaging.
4. In all cases when the symbols of the Baltic Assembly are used for its popularization or for commercial purposes, permission from the Presidium of the Baltic Assembly shall be required for each type, time and place of their use.
5. The task of the Presidium of the Baltic Assembly shall be:
  - 1) to examine the applications by natural and legal persons for permission to use the symbols of the Baltic Assembly;
  - 2) to set requirements concerning the quality of goods on which the symbols of the Baltic Assembly are used in an artistic design;
  - 3) to examine violations of the use of the symbols of the Baltic Assembly and to make decisions;
  - 4) to draft and approve the method of calculating the payment for the use of the symbols of the Baltic Assembly.
6. The procedure for spending the income from the use of the Baltic Assembly symbols shall be drafted by the Budget and Audit Committee.
7. The Secretariat of the Baltic Assembly, proceeding from the method drafted by the Presidium, shall:
  - 1) determine the payment for the right to use the Baltic Assembly symbols;
  - 2) supervise the use of the Baltic Assembly symbols in compliance with the present Regulations (Art. 50, subpoint 12, the Baltic Assembly Statute).
8. In obtaining permission to use the Baltic Assembly symbols, the following documents shall be submitted to the Secretariat of the Baltic Assembly:
  - 1) an application;
  - 2) a sketch or a sample of the respective item;
  - 3) description of the purpose and the form of use;
  - 4) a letter guaranteeing payment.
9. These Regulations shall be an appendix to the Baltic Assembly Statute.
