

BALTIC ASSEMBLY

RESOLUTION

On Pensions and Social Benefits

The Baltic Assembly, meeting in Jūrmala (Kemeris) from May 13—15, 1994, suggests that the Governments of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania resolve, by the signing of bilateral and trilateral government agreements, the issue of pensions and strictly regulated social benefits for persons, who, having formerly resided in the territories of the contracting parties, have obtained the citizenship or a status made equivalent to the citizenship of the respective country and have attained the required length of service.
